

1. Put the sentence in passive form: To be + Past Participle

Tense	Active	Passive
Present simple	Anna offers a prize to the student.	The student is offered a prize.
Present progressive	Mu mum is cooking spaghetti right now.	Spaghetti is being cooked right now.
Present perfect	They have sent an email to the committee.	An email has been sent to the committee.
Simple past	The boy broke car window.	The car window was broken .
Simple future	The writer will publish a new book.	A new book will be published .
Modals	He should read the new study first.	The new study should be read first.

Example:

A.G. Bell invented the telephone in 1876. → The telephone was invented in 1876 by A.G. Bell.
 (Simple past) (Active) (Be (past) + past participle) (Passive)

- a) The director will receive an Oscar tomorrow. -----
- b) The young author has written 2 novels so far. -----
- c) Today, scientists can use AI to do their studies. -----
- d) Thomas Edison discovered the light bulb. -----
- e) The internet provides a lot of information. -----
- f) Researchers are preparing a report about the climate. -----

2. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the word 'science'.

- a) -----use sophisticated scientific equipment to investigate natural phenomena.
- b) Biology includes many life -----, such as ecology and genetics.
- c) Marie Curie was a famous ----- who discovered radium and polonium.
- d) There is no treatment approach that has been ----- proven to work for all cases.

3. Put the words in the correct form

- a) Engineers has (develop) ----- a new app to help students learn math quickly.
- b) Winning the science fair was her greatest (achieve) ----- last year.
- c) A British (chemistry) ----- was awarded a prize in recognition of his new discoveries.
- d) His (contribute) ----- to the team project helped everyone succeed.
- e) The teacher received a (prestige) ----- prize in a global contest.
- f) The new phone is (technology) ----- advanced with a better camera.